FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

Another full and interesting Zonta month has just flown past. The fund raising committee has been busy with B.B.Q's at Bunnings.

Quite a number of our members attended the first Combined Services Clubs of Caboolture/Morayfield Awards Night. Awards were presented to local businesses that support our Clubs, to honour our local Policeman of the Year and to other members of the community that deserve recognition for their selfless volunteer work.

Zonta was asked to give awards to Knitting for Brisbane Needy, Jayne Coe for her production of Side by Side DVD and Bribie Island Dragons Abreast.

Hopefully we will continue to be involve with Rotary, Lions, Lionesses and Apex with these annual awards.

Looking forward to inducting our new member Deb Symes at our Dinner Meeting.

A friendly reminder could I please have committee reports by the Monday before the next Dinner Meeting.

President Carole

FINANCE AND FUNDRAISING

Planning is still underway for our next fundraiser - the "DABI Keeping Abreast of Fashions" fashion parade on Saturday 28th June, 2014. Please spread the word for this event.

Our Zonta Antique Roadshow is also being organised for Saturday 2nd August - 10am to 4pm. Please mark your diaries with more information to come.

We are once again holding our shoe and bag sale so please ask your friends and families for any unwanted shoes and bags they may wish to donate. This will be held at the Caboolture Markets on Sunday 27th July so we'll be asking for volunteers to help man the stall.

Our next BBQ is on Saturday 12th July and I'll possibly need someone to organise this as I could be in Bali. It is most important that someone is there to set up and start the bbq rolling. More next month.
