Advancement of Women Inaugural Award 2019

Who can be nominated?

Eligible applicants

The Zonta Club of Brisbane wishes to recognize a person who through their leadership, work or advocacy is progressing the status of women by either creating new pathways, facilitating women's advancement along existing pathways or advancing the interests of women through other endeavours in social, community, economic, academic, political or work environments.

Zonta Brisbane is seeking nominations for the inaugural Advancement of Women Award. The prize of $5000 will be awarded annually.

"If you don't like the road you're walking on, start paving another one ..."

Dorothy Parton, singer

The winner will be someone who

-  Is a trailblazer and a mentor to the women around them
-  Has progressed the status of women by creating new pathways for them to use
-  Showed courage in changing the status quo
-  Has assisted women to realize their true potential against the pressure of tradition and convention and
-  Has advanced the interests of women through endeavours in social, community, economic, academic, political or work environments

Zonta Club of Brisbane is part of Zonta International – founded in 1919

Mission

-  Zonta International is a leading global organization of professionals empowering women worldwide through service and advocacy.

Vision

-  Zonta International envisions a world in which women's rights are recognized as human rights and every woman is able to achieve her full potential.
-  In such a world, women have access to all resources and are represented in decision making positions on an equal basis with men.
-  In such a world, no woman lives in fear of violence

"In the nineteenth century, the central moral challenge was slavery. In the twentieth century, it was the battle against totalitarianism. We believe that in this century the paramount moral challenge will be the struggle for gender equality around the world."
