Judith Trevan-Hawke
District 22 Governor

Professor Hilary Winchester is currently the Provost of CQUniversity . Hilary holds undergraduate and postgraduate degrees from the University of Oxford and has a background in social geography, with a particular emphasis on migrant and marginal groups.

Hilary has held roles as Pro Vice Chancellor: University of South Australia, and Flinders University and President of Academic Senate at the University of Newcastle. Hilary has been the Chair of Universities Australia Executive Women, actively promoting gender equity for women in academia, including developing and having accepted the Universities Australia Second Action Plan for Women in 2006, and in 2009 was appointed to the South Australian Women's Honour Roll.

Deb Rae is an accomplished consultant, author and coach with more than 20 years national experience. Her expertise lies in creating and maximising opportunities for growth – of organisations, teams and individuals. Deb achieves this by supporting people to celebrate their strengths, acknowledge barriers and make the changes that matter to them. It's a challenging, exhilarating and joyous ride!

In the Mackay/Whitsunday region, Deb has a proven track record in team development, individual coaching and strategic planning. A skilled facilitator, her presentations are honest, inspiring and fun. Deb's qualifications include a Master of Social Administration, Bachelor of Arts, Graduate Diploma of Human Resource Management and a Diploma of Management. She was also awarded the, Manager of the Year (for the Mackay region in the Australian Institute of Management's Management Excellence Awards in 2011.

Debra Howe has worked in local government in Queensland and Victoria for over 18 years and in the private sector for just over 21 years.

Debra moved to Mackay in May 2014 and commenced with Mackay Region Council as Manager Economic Development responsible for economic development, place management and major project and investment facilitation. Debra joined the Zonta Club of Mackay in June 2014.

In September 2010, Debra won the Queensland Telstra Business Women's Award, Community and Government category and went on to compete in the 2010 Australian Telstra Business Women's Award. Debra was also nominated in the 2009 Telstra Awards and was a finalist in the same category in the 2000.

Debra attributes her experience with the Awards and surviving breast cancer diagnosed in 2006 and a secondary cancer in 2008) as the key drivers for living her life to the fullest and taking on any challenge that are thrown at her and strives to achieve a healthier work life balance.
