Dear Ladies,

I am sure we are all looking forward to a full and productive year from our club, both socially and in our fund raising efforts to support all our great causes.

Now that all the committees have met for the first time, we can start planning our next 12 months in earnest. Don't forget, no committee is an island and is expected to do everything. We all work together well as a team, you just need to ask for help.

As per my previous emails, please remember to bring your money to the dinner meeting if you wish to order an orange "Zonta say 'NO'" t-shirt. Our order has to be placed by 31st July. As well, if anyone is able to attend Zonta Rockhampton's 30th Anniversary celebrations, it sounds like a terrific weekend away.

I was at our board meeting when our segment "Local Heroes" on Channel 7 aired. I haven't seen it yet, but the feedback I have received has been great. Thank you to Anne for allowing herself to be interviewed with Alison, and congratulations to the Public Relations team.
