

Z CHASING A-GRADE TALENT

Special school quest

North Rockhampton High School Z Club plans a special talent quest for International Youth Year.

Acting principal and Z Club coordinator Miss Adele Freeman said the talent quest would be held in the school assembly hall on August 16 at 7.30pm and was open to all Rockhampton secondary school students.

Miss Freeman said prospective contestants would be asked to pay a $2 entry fee.

Miss Freeman said a $50 prize would be awarded to the best performance in the three categories of vocal, instrumental, and other with another prize awarded for the most promising act.

● Matthew Deane Z club finance committee chairman, Michelle Smith Z club member and member of Z club finance committee Ilya Qizilbash hold up a poster advertising the club's talent quest.