

GETTING SOME Zs

M. B.
4.4.85

The first Z Club in Australia, formed at North Rockhampton High, is toasting International Youth Year.

Ms Adel Freeman, deputy principal and organiser of the Z Club, said the junior Zonta fellowship and service club was intended to promote international understanding and caring towards members of the community.

The new club, which had of 48 members.

Seven committees had been set to strive towards club's various goals. These were for fellowship, service, fundraising, social, membership, public relations and programme committees.

Executive were: president Alison Baxter, vice president Judi Smyth, secretary Gena Richards, and treasurer Chris Bosley.

"Zonta" was a sioux-Indian word meaning "honest and trust worthy". The Zonta club, which was formed in the United States in 1919, was introduced to Rockhampton in 1983 and had now expanded further by forming the Z Club, said Ms Freeman.