

'Z' Club drops off toys in the bush

The "Z" Club of North Rockhampton State High School, a junior version of Zonta, is the first of its kind to be formed in District 16.

The club has a membership of 50 year 8 to 11 students. The executive comprises Alison Baxter (president), Judi Smyth (vice-president), Gena Richards (secretary) and Chris Bosley (treasurer). The club was chartered in March 1985.

It has undertaken several projects since formation, including working for the benefit of the Endeavour Foundation, and small school projects such as working on the nutritional value of the food sales from the school tuckshop.

On Monday, Rockhampton Zonta

● Bush children Jennifer Dickson from Middlemount and Natalie Moss from the Gemfields with a heap of toys received from North Rockhampton State High School "Z" Club president Alison Baxter (right).

Club president Adele Freeman accompanied "Z" club president Alison Baxter to the Leslie Wilson Home of the Royal Queensland Bush Children's Health Scheme at Yeppoon.

The purpose of their visit was to give the bushchildren's home a heap of children's toys collected by the "Z" club. This was the club's first project for the bushchildren.