President's Message:

My first thought is for Clair and of course our love and thoughts are with both her and Bob.

This last month we have witnessed wonderful commitment from our Zontians.

The very successful working bee at Margaret Olive's home resulted in the completion of thirty Pamper Packs and the assembly line for the Breast Care Cushions has another forty or more nearly ready for delivery. Our sincere thanks go to Margaret Olive for organizing the working bee and for the use of her home once again. Thanks to the workers - Anna C, Chris, Norma D, Elizabeth, Trish, Kerry, Norma W and of course Margaret O for a great afternoon of productive energy. I was also there to do my 'bit' on the sewing machine. These working bees are a great opportunity for fellowship.

WHAT A GREAT HIGH TEA!!!!!!!!!!!!

Thanks to all for the super effort, which resulted in a very successful High Tea. Attendance was at an all time high with 115 ladies enjoying the evening. A big thank you to Margaret Olive who not only organized the sale of tickets but also organized table seating for the night, which was a marathon effort. The fashion parade by Kathy Mac Boutique was received very enthusiastically by all. Thank you to Di who was our MC and also models Chris, Chieko, Norma D, Kay and Glenys.

Representatives of Anglicare, The Salvation Army and Lifeline were in attendance to receive $200.00 Christmas donations from Zonta and Jenny Hemsall from Women's Shelter was thrilled to receive the $160.00 hamper of Christmas goodies and also the thirty Pamper Packs. Congratulations to 'ticket sellers extraordinaire' Kerry Tidings and Anna Condon with raffle proceeds totaling $507.00. Profit from entry should also be close to $1000.00. (We're hoping for a photo in the paper)

The wonderful surprise of the night

was for Zonta to receive a $250.00 donation from Del Saxby who was representing the Australian Breast Cancer Day Committee. The money is for the purchase of materials for the cushions. That will certainly 'buy' a lot of cushions.

I am looking forward to an enjoyable
Christmas function on Tuesday night
as we wrap up the Zonta year.

Christmas blessings to all and I wish you joy, peace and love in the New

Yours in Zonta
