

ZONTA SCHOLARSHIP LEADS TO CONTRACT

The successful recipient of the Zonta Club of the Blackall Range Sunshine Coast Hinterland's 2019 tertiary humanities scholarship, Lisa McDonald, recently shared her story with club members about the role the scholarship played in her current professional appointment.

Lisa used the $1,500 scholarship to subsidise expenses associated with her internship at the Cisarua Refugee Learning Centre (CRLC) in West Java earlier this year, and has since been offered a contract to write a series of teacher training modules for beginner teachers at the refugee centre.
