

FINANCIAL SEMINAR FOR WOMEN

“How to make smarter and more sustainable financial decisions”

Saturday, 14 May 2016

Shalom College Performing Arts Building, Fitzgerald St, Bundaberg

10.00 am – 4.00 pm

Cost: $30.00

 GUEST SPEAKER: SALLY HUYNH, Private Client Adviser with Shadforth Financial Group, Brisbane.	Sally holds a Bachelor of Business degree from Griffith University and was the top graduate from her year. She also has a Diploma of Export Management, a Diploma of Financial Planning From Deakin University and holds the internationally recognised Certified Financial Planner™ practitioner designation, the highest certification for financial advisers in the profession. Sally has been ranked in the top 50 financial advisers across Australia through the prestigious AFR Smart Investor Masterclass for Financial Planning 2012 and was named in the Top 10 in 2013. Sally has a passion for educating women to be financially astute.
---	---

PROGRAM

9.30 am	Registration/Tea/Coffee/Biscuits
10.00 am	Welcome – Zonta Club of Bundaberg Vice-President – Marie Blundell
10.10 am	Sally Huynh – Goal establishment and prioritisation, Cash flow/budgeting, Buying first property/home, Wealth creation and borrowing to create wealth, Superannuation savings and tax planning, Asset protection and personal insurances, Centrelink Planning, Retirement planning, Estate planning, Investment – noises vs facts, Retirement village and aged care matters, Do I need a financial adviser and what to look for from an advisor?
12.10 pm – 12.45 pm	Lunch
12.50 pm	Sally Huynh – Continued
2.20 pm	CentreLink – Services to Women
2.50 pm	Wayne Chamberlin – Salvation Army – Services to Women
3.20 pm	Karen Seary – Associate Dean - School of Academic Learning Services – CQ University Kelly Payne – STEPS Graduate with an Undergraduate Business Degree
3.50 pm	Close

Registration Form attached or send request via email: zontaclubbundaberg@hotmail.com

Ticket Sales: Bundaberg Health Foods, 51E Woongarra Street, Bundaberg.