President's Message:

This month I would like to share with you extracts from a piece from Nerissa Williams, "Success Corner" at www.successcorner.com.au

Self-management...your key to success

1. Be self-observant, self-managing and self-motivated

No one knows you better than yourself. Use your knowledge of best skills, values, personal characteristics and unique value-add to keep momentum. Self-knowledge is the foundation of our work and career. When you know what motivates you and what you do best, you'll succeed at much higher levels.

2. Use peers, leaders and mentors for guidance, feedback and resources

People who lead others, or self-lead, know it's essential to learn from others, get feedback and develop on-going relationships for future success. Leadership qualities do not develop in a vacuum; these relationships and resources are critical to development as a leader.

3. Be committed, though behaviours and actions, to the visions of the business, group or organization

Self-leaders have integrity, commitment and a desire to work for the good of the whole, not just for their own advancement.

4. Demonstrate interest in the development and success of those around you. Actively support others as a peer, mentor or leader

Self-leaders have a willingness and commitment to share knowledge and expertise with others. They offer time and resources to help others achieve their goals. Their definition of success is broadened to advancing the status of women worldwide included sharing in the development of success for others.

At our next club meeting we will be focusing on our plans and focus for the coming Zonta year. During the past year we spent some time sharing our stories. How do we progress? Spend a moment to reflect on this question and bring your ideas to the June dinner meeting.

I look forward to a successful High Tea on 12 June. Don't forget to extend an invitation to all your friends.
Regards

Trish Collin

Report

Membership-Program-Newsletter-United Nations.

Membership.

- We are working on a system whereby prospective members can be nominated, approved by the club, come to both a dinner and a small meeting and be invited to join the club within a short period of time. Membership has dropped recently with transfers and retirements and we urge all Zontians to forward any suggestions to this committee.
- We are bringing up to date a profile of all members.
- Chieko has accepted the invitation to join Zonta and we welcome her to the club.

Newsletter and Publicity.

- Berenice is now sending information and photographs to the newspapers electronically so please send her any material for publication.

Program.

- Don't forget, the July meeting will be at Clair's.

*To the world
you are someone but to someone you are the world.*

One touch is worth 10,000 words.

The most wasted days are those without laughter.

Happiness is a way of travelling not a destination.

The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen nor touched but are felt in the heart.

Mother and Daughter Zontians.

After reading about the Mothers and Daughters in the latest edition of the Zontian, I was thrilled to learn from my daughter Alison, that she had been invited to join the Zonta Club of Melbourne. Her installation to the Melbourne Club will take place at the June Meeting. I feel that chatting about Zonta with her was the catalyst for her to express interest in joining. We now have something else in common to chat about!
