PRESIDENT'S PATTERN

Thanks to everyone for extra patience this month with a delay in the newsletter. Better late than never.

New Executive: A big welcome to the new executive of the club with the election held at our AGM on Monday night. I look forward to taking a back seat for a while and supporting the new team who will see us through the next two years. The Annual Report will be distributed in the next week and hard copies will be available at the June dinner meeting.

Breast Cushions: The next breast cushion morning will be on Sunday 27 May at Education office at Mt Gravatt Market Square. We start at about 9.30am through until midday—everyone is welcome to come along. There are plenty of cushions to fill as the new supplies of Tontine fill have been delivered. Members of the Logan Club will join us for the morning.

June Meeting: A reminder that the June meeting—change over dinner is a week later than usual because of the Queen's Birthday long weekend on the 11th our scheduled meeting.

You are invited to bring along HonZons, friend or potential members to the dinner. However, please let Jill know by the Wednesday so that we can cater for any extra guests.

Special Guest: We have invited our J. M. Klausman club nominee to attend the meeting/dinner and say a few words about her studies. I am sure it will be enlightening to those of us whose study years are well behind us. Beth Schutz is studying at Griffith University for a dual degree in Arts and Commerce, majoring in Politics, Economy and Social Science, and Management. We welcome her nomination.

Antique Fair: Everyone would have received the email regarding the Fair on 8 July and how you can help out on the day. The news at each meeting gets better and better with 89 tables booked and paid for already. Heather & Denise will squeeze every bit of space in the hall so that we can meet the demand of dealers.

Flyers and posters are available to put up in your workplace or neighbourhood so that we can get an even bigger crowd than last year.

Treasurers Report: Thanks to Ros for getting the financial statements audited and ready for our AGM. It was definitely a great effort under trying circumstances.

Entertainment Books: Still some books available for just $60 each with the club earning $12 for each book sold. Please see Jill to get your copies as they are limited in numbers this year.

Board Meeting: Also a reminder to Board members that we will be having a meeting before the Breast Cushion morning at 9am.

Lynn Callander
